

Our 3 Principles

- 1 Childhood is a Distinct Time
- 2 Learning is Acting in new Ways
- 3 Learning is Physiological and Begins in the Body

There's Still Time to find the Right Education

Providing a Relevant Education in a Nurturing Environment

We understand that:

Learning is a natural process when you integrate nature, arts, movement, friendship and academics.

Children learn best with structure, warmth and encouragement.

Academic success and positive self-concept are related.
